I wish to lodge my objection to the planned Aquind installation on the strongest possible terms.

These works will go through important nature areas, that are vitally important locally and on an international basis and are home to rare species of wildlife. Not only this the impact on the health and wellbeing of the people of this city is far too great. That this city that is one of the most densely populated places in Europe will lose what remains of its open space to an infrastructure scheme without any local accountability is disgusting.

I am appalled that the wishes of the local community, and local government have been utterly ignored.

Yours Sincerely

Richard Williams
