Dear Sir or Madam,

As a resident of Portsmouth and local allotment holder I wish to strongly voice my objection to the Aquid Connector Project.
As I understand a number of allotments on the Eastney Lake site will be affected and destroyed.
How can such an undertaking go ahead when we have all become aware of the vital importance of green spaces in our cities?
Apart from the environmental consequences you do not seem to have taken the psychological impact for the allotment holders into consideration.Many have worked for years on their plots,have spent thousands of pounds and consider them as their little spots of paradise.
You must be aware of alternative routes for this project and I implore you to consider these,even if it means a slight reduction to your already immense profits.

Yours
Uta Colbey
