Dear Nicky Britton-Williams

Planning Act 2008 (as amended) – Section 95

Application by Kent Wildlife Trust for an award of costs: against London Resort Company Holdings Limited regarding an Application for an Order Granting Development Consent for the London Resort

1. By a submission dated 26 April 2022, Kent Wildlife Trust has made an application for an award of costs ("the costs application") against London Resort Company Holdings Limited ("the respondent party") regarding its Application for an Order Granting Development Consent for the London Resort ("the Order"). The costs application has been published and can be seen in the Examination Library [CAPP-010].
2. The Examining Authority (ExA) appointed to examine the Order is empowered to make awards of costs against relevant parties in respect of the examination of a Nationally Significant Infrastructure Project (NSIP). The power to award costs under section (s) 250(5) of the Local Government Act 1972 is applied to an examination of an application for a development consent order ('DCO') by s95(4) of the Planning Act 2008 (PA2008).
3. The Secretary of State has published guidance on costs applications in relation to DCO examinations ("the Costs Guidance"). It can be accessed by following this link:
Award of costs: examinations of applications for development consent orders - Guidance \(publishing.service.gov.uk\)
4. On 7 April 2022, the Planning Inspectorate provided advice under section 51 of the Planning Act 2008 in relation to previous costs decisions taken on the Atlantic Array application, which is available via the National Infrastructure Planning Website landing page for the London Resort.
5. Further to the statutory powers outlined above, to the Costs Guidance and having had regard to the approach taken to previous costs decisions identified in the section 51 advice, I am writing to inform you that the ExA has given preliminary consideration to the costs application, noting that it is based on an allegation of unreasonable behaviour by the respondent party. This letter is to acknowledge receipt of the costs application and to set out the process under which a decision will be taken on it.

6. In relation to the validity of the costs application that you have submitted, the ExA notes that it was made within 28 days of the withdrawal of the application for the Order and so is timely. However, the ExA has not reached a concluded position on the question of whether it is a valid application and whether it has jurisdiction to consider the costs application. Your application relies on an allegation of unreasonable behaviour. It is based on your standing as an Interested Party. Whilst there are circumstances (including those in respect of which the section 51 advice referred to in paragraph 4 above was given) in which successful objector costs claims can arise in the time prior to a Preliminary Meeting, further to paragraph 12 of the Costs Guidance, it is not clear that costs for unreasonable behaviour can do so, but neither are such claims conclusively excluded. It follows that there is a question in relation to validity and jurisdiction that must be decided before a decision is taken on the merits of the costs application that you have made.
7. Five Interested Parties have made submissions that rely on allegations of unreasonable behaviour alone and argue that such claims can validly be made in relation to matters arising before a Preliminary Meeting [CAPP-003, 004, 007, 009 & 010]. These submissions are relevant to the validity and jurisdiction question as to whether such claims can be made. Nine Affected Persons have made submissions that rely on both the standing of the costs applicant as an Affected Person and on allegations of unreasonable behaviour [CAPP-006, 011, 013, 014, 015, 017, 018, 019 and 020]. To the extent that these applications for costs also argue that unreasonable behaviour claims can be made in relation to matters arising before a Preliminary Meeting, then aspects of them raise considerations that are relevant to the question of jurisdiction. All of the documents referred to above are available on the National Infrastructure Planning Website documents tab.
8. In accordance with paragraph 34 of the Costs Guidance and for the reasons set out above, the ExA has decided to address the validity and the jurisdiction question and the question of whether the respondent party's behaviour satisfies the necessary tests for unreasonable behaviour in a rolled-up procedure. The ExA has asked me to write to the respondent party today (copy attached), providing them with an opportunity to make any observations on the following matters:
  - Matter 1: the validity of the costs application and the jurisdiction to award costs for unreasonable behaviour in these circumstances; and, without prejudice to this first matter
  - Matter 2: the unreasonable behaviour alleged in the costs application and whether it meets the test for an award set out in the Costs Guidance.

The respondent has been asked to reply within 14 calendar days (by 23 May 2022).

9. If the respondent party elects to respond, copies of the response on each matter responded to will be provided to you shortly after they have been received by the

www.planningportal.gov.uk/infrastructure

ExA. I will then provide you with an opportunity to make your final observations to the ExA in writing, within a further 14 calendar days. I will write to you again if needs be, to advise you of that start and end of that period.

10. Following receipt of your final observations (or the expiry of the deadline if no such submissions are made), the ExA will proceed first to decide the costs application, the outcomes of which will be communicated to you in writing.

11. All correspondence relating to these costs applications will be published on the National Infrastructure Planning Website following the costs decision by the ExAs.

12. If you have any questions about this letter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

Edwin Mawdsley
