

Submission ID: 5606

I strongly advise that Sizewell C is not allowed to be built. Nuclear energy is not green energy. Building the complex would be highly carbon-intensive and the resultant nuclear waste would be create significant problems for future generations. Furthermore, the site is inappropriate given that the coastline is eroding and sea levels rising.