Dear Sir/Madam

I wish to raise strong objections to the proposed nuclear power plant at Sizewell.

If it were a smaller plant I would be less inclined to object but the scale and untried nature of the one proposed is completely inappropriate not for just this area but for anywhere in Britain.

The local area is one of beauty and a wildlife haven. The building of the power plant puts that in real jeopardy. In addition, local infrastructure can barely manage with the transport it already has let alone hundreds of additional trucks barrelling around.

Yours faithfully

Jane Bryden Brown
