Dear Sirs

We refer to the above and the request on point 13 which the clients Messrs F R Done, T G Ellis & Edwards.

We respond with the response to the 3 bullet points under this item as follows:

- If it is the case that the affect person clients have ongoing concerns about the basis for and quantum of compensation , these are not matters than can be determined with the framework of this examination. However, it would assist the ExA if Rostons were to advises that this is the case.
 - We confirm that we are still in negotiation with Agents acting on behalf of Wrexham Power over the quantum and basis of compensation.
- Alternatively, if their clients do have any ongoing planning objections to compulsory acquisition or temporary possession, Rostons are requested to document these for their clients at Deadline 7, as this will be the last opportunity that they can be provided with to make any such submissions whilst enabling comment from the application, before closure of the examination.
 - We confirm our concerns relate to the quantum/basis of compensation only.

We would be grateful if you could please confirm safe receipt of this email.

Yours faithfully

Rostons
