5.	Red-Throated Diver of the Outer Thames Estuary SPA: baseline The Applicants disagree with Natural England's position on the RTD baseline. They propose that a number of constructed windfarms which have been operational whilst a population rise has been observed should not be included for in-combination impact assessment. Natural England is requested to set out its position.	Natural England	D3
6.	Outer Thames Estuary SPA: Project Environmental Management Plan (PEMP) provisions for Red-Throated Diver If the Applicants are relying on the best practice protocol for minimising Red Throated Diver disturbance, a draft should be submitted into the examinations. The Applicants should review the drafting of the relevant DML conditions to ensure that it is sufficiently clear and precise so as to secure their commitments to a 'best practice protocol' for minimizing disturbance to red-throated diver .	Applicants	D3
