Hello again,

This is Video 1b in respect of flooding on walking route, picking up at the end of 1a sent separately, for visit 27 January. Video 2, already sent, follows on from the other side of this kissing gate or stile. There is also easier access to the track at the other side of this stile a little way to the left, or southwards, where you can rejoin this point.

Please do let me know if both have reached you, and thanks for your help.

All the best,

Tessa.
