Dear Kay Sully

I refer to the attached letter regarding adequacy of consultation.

Having reviewed the consultation report I am able to see that Bradford Council are listed as being informed of the pending application. Unfortunately there are some errors, which may be why the Planning Service have not received the information directly. Bradford Council is listed as "Bradford Metropolitan Borough Council", the correct title is "City of Bradford Metropolitan District Council". The address listed in "Table 1 :Stage 1 Consultees" is given as "Planning Service, Jacob's Well, Bradford, BD1 5RW" and is incorrect, the Planning Service has been located at the Britannia House address (below) for over a year and the Jacobs Well building vacated by Bradford Council.

Bradford Council are not an adjoining authority and the proposal is some distance from the Bradford District. It is unlikely that the proposal will adversely impact on the Bradford District, except for the possibility of some very distant views from high points within Bradford on a clear day, consequently although the consultation with the City of Bradford Metropolitan District Council may have erred, we do not wish to make negative representation in terms of the adequacy of consultation.
