Dear Hefin

We act on behalf of London Array Limited ("LAL"). This email represents a joint submission on behalf of LAL and the Applicant (the Applicant's legal advisers are copied).

I refer to my previous emails to you of 29 May 2019, 12 June 2019, 25 June 2019 (including a written representation on behalf of LAL) and 15 July 2019 in relation to this application. The Applicant and LAL have continued to be in dialogue throughout the examination and are pleased to report that substantial progress has been made. The terms of commercial agreements, which aim to protect LAL's interests, and provide the Applicant with the interests in land it requires for the proposed development, have been agreed between the Applicant and LAL, and contracts have been exchanged today.

Therefore, I confirm that LAL is satisfied that its interests are now protected and withdraws its previous representations to the Examining Authority.

Yours sincerely

Sophie
