Dear Sirs,

The Port of London Authority ("PLA") has had constructive discussions with the Applicant which it hopes will continue. In light of this, the PLA hopes to agree outstanding matters sufficiently with the Applicant without needing to appear at any of the Examination Hearings. However, the PLA does reserve the right to appear if it should need to and, at the moment, if it does need to appear it would expect it to be at any Issue Specific Hearing on shipping and navigation or on the drafting of the Development Consent Order. The PLA's appearance would relate to any matters in its Deadline D submissions or further matters raised in its Written Representations which remain outstanding.

Kind regards,
Sam
