

Submission ID: 5913

How does the incinerator take into account future generations and the current trends of reducing, reusing and recycling and a move towards a circular economy. Would it not be more sustainable and better use of money to invest in technology to reduce waste rather than incinerate it. How does the scheme provide environmental, economic, and social benefits for future generations.