

Submission ID: 5913

The incinerator design was changed from gasification technology to thermal treatment. We were told at Phase 4 that the PEIR would be updated. It never was, why not, and surely the potential impacts on residents could be completely different