

Submission ID: 10574

An example of a BESS already operational at Burwell National Grid Substation would be an excellent site visit for the Examining Authority, especially in view of the fact that this is the substation to which it proposed Sunnica should connect