

Submission ID: 10852

Raising the importance of securing our highly productive arable land particularly during current climates where prices have rocketed and supplies restricted from purchasing a broad. PV is needed but not on prime high yielding land.