

I have received many letters and phone calls from Sunnica's representatives requesting that I give them permission to access [REDACTED]. On each occasion I have stated that as I am not the owner of the property, I cannot and will not give them permission to enter the property. These letters have stated that they will use their right to compulsory access if necessary. I have found these letters to be somewhat aggressive in tone.