HoTs for a tripartite agreement between the Applicant, DCC and two of their respective leaseholders were also issued to those same representatives on the same date. Communication and discussion have been ongoing between the parties with meetings being held on 8 June 2022 and 22 July 2022. During the course of these meetings and in associated correspondence, it was determined that the triparty approach to addressing the leasehold interests was not favoured by DCC and as such, further drafting was required to amalgamate the HoTs for all DCC owned land into one composite document. The updated HoTs were issued on 14 October 2022 and a meeting

										The Applicant and NGET are continuing active discussions on the protective provisions for NGET. The main outstanding issue between the parties relates to the interaction between AyM and the future extension of the Bodelwyddan substation. The Applicant recognises that NGET are delivering important infrastructure on behalf of a number of parties. However, the Applicant must ensure that it is able to deliver the AyM project within its order limits which the Applicant considers is a reasonable position. A meeting between engineers for the Applicant and NGET took place on 2 March 2023 to which identified a possible compromise. The Applicant received a revised set of protective provisions from NGET's solicitors on 7 March 2023 and is in the process of reviewing these.

										Should protective provisions not be agreed by the close of the Examination, the Applicant intends to submit its preferred set of protective provisions in the final version of the dDCO at Deadline 8. It is anticipated that NGET will also submit its preferred set of protective provisions to the ExA. It will then be open for the ExA to recommend that either set of protective provisions (or another form of protective provisions) is included in the DCO should it be granted by the Secretary of State. The Applicant and NGET will continue to negotiate the protective provisions after the close of the Examination and will submit any agreed set of protective provisions to the Secretary of State to take into consideration when making the final decision.
