Dear Peter Morrison

Awel y Mor Offshore Windfarm – Question to Natural England re Report on the Implications for European Sites

Thank you for your consultation dated 24 February 2023. The following constitutes Natural England's formal statutory response.

Natural England defer to NRW's advice regarding European sites within Wales and Welsh waters and sites that cross the English/Welsh border. For European sites solely within England or English waters, Natural England does not have any concerns relating to effects from the proposed development.
