

Submission ID: 12700

The Parish Council would like to see a 'design champion' and design review panel' , since this would ensure that the construction of the buildings incorporated good sustainability and the design code recommendations were enforced. It is essential that the whole development is built with the best sustainability features.