

solar farm efficiency. The nett efficiency of solar farms of this magnitude must be questioned in relation to the infrastructure costs and the relative loss of agricultural land and the corresponding increase in cost of importing food or food components and the corresponding nett carbon negativity in relation to shipping costs.