

Submission ID: 27441

I remain opposed to the scale of the proposed site and its use of agricultural land when brown field commercial sites and residential rooftops are available. In addition, I am concerned that Mallard Pass had not completed all the necessary approvals in relation to existing infrastructure when they have had so much time available. Does this mean there will be other things not yet considered or finalised in their plans?