Subject: Mallard Pass Petition Presentation to the House of Commons – Wednesday, 20th March (Case Ref: AK28090)

Good morning,

I hope you and your loved ones are well as the days begin to grow longer and Spring has sprung. I have been notified that I can formally present the petition against Mallard Pass to the House of Commons this Wednesday, 20th March.

An incredible 3414 people signed the petition.

When I took the physical copy to the Parliamentary clerks responsible for petitions, they were openly surprised at its size and weight. Thank you to each and every one of you who signed. Together we have demonstrated beyond doubt how united our communities are in opposition to this development.

You can watch me delivering the petition here: [REDACTED]

The presentation of the petition will happen before the Adjournment (final) debate of the day, usually between 19:00-20:00, however this is subject to Parliamentary business and the time could be different.

If you want to watch me present the petition to the House, you can do so on the House of Commons section of Parliament's online stream:

Thank you again for your support and for raising your voice against Mallard Pass. I will continue to lobby the Secretary of State and hope she will make the right decision and say no to this heinous proposal.

Best wishes,

Alicia
