

Submission ID: 17343

Drive along the Escarpment on the B1398 starting from the A631 finishing at the A1500 junction this is known as the escarpment - a Jurassic feature with viewing points across the Trent Valley - you will be able to see the power stations in the distance.

500 meters from where you are standing will be solar panels all the way to the power station many miles away!