

This project needs to be considered as one part of the scheme planning to cover the area around Gainsborough with over 10,000 acres of these industrial solar plants. Good quality farmland like this is surely better used producing food. These schemes will be entirely jarring set in this rural area and will impact negatively both aesthetically and in the noise and disruption involved in the building and ongoing maintenance.