

Submission ID: 20724

I believe putting solar panels on farmland, that can be used for food growth is totally unacceptable, with the growing population our farms and farmland will be needed for food production ,so we can be self sufficient as best we can .