

From: Geoffrey Turner

Received: 13 Nov 2023

I live close to the proposed developments and see no concrete benefits. The project will have a serious negative impact on our environment, reducing food production land, negatively affecting wild life diversity and seriously impacting on the local historically important village and land. The sheer size will negatively impact on the mental health of our community - I can see no reason why such a project is being considered - it provides fir inefficient power generstion efficiency, at too high a cost to too many people.