

From: Rose Ward

Received: 14 Nov 2023

I feel that the land earmarked for this development should not be used in this case. It is important to be able to feed ourselves in the future so as not to rely on imported foods over which we have no control. We can have fresh food with no air miles at present. The area is also important for wildlife too. I am not against solar panels per se, just not in our fields! Suitable sites are available on the roofs of houses and factories and industrial sites.