

From: Juliette Dalrymple

Received: 14 Nov 2023

This area is important for wildlife ,and is an important resource for tge community in terms of mental health and well being . Disturbance of this area will release carbon onto tge atmosphere . It is part of a strategy to provide infrastructure for a land grab for solar energy .Land which is sorely needed for food production to ensure we are self sufficient for food . There is requirement for energy but to cover Lincolnshire with solar panels will not meet that need .