

From: Sophie Dhokia

Received: 13 Nov 2023

Solar farms are an inappropriate use of our land. The land grab from other countries and large companies making money from us should be stopped. If houses and factories have their own solar panels then the land can continue to be used by farmers, wildlife and local people who live here for the beautiful country walks and fresh air. If we don't stop this now there is no going back. Other more efficient ways of making energy should be considered.