

From: Timothy Leckey

Received: 13 Nov 2023

This industrial plan is not in keeping with the rural farmland setting of the area. It will mar beautiful land and destroy the habitats of local wildlife. As with all of these applications to do with the various solar projects they need to be viewed and considered as a whole rather than piecemeal. The scale of the whole potential development is monstrous and will be a horrible blight on the landscape.