

Submission ID: 23861

The main viewing points to truly evaluate the scale and effect of this project will have is best served by driving across the total length of the B1398. You will also be able to stop at the dedicated viewing point just outside Scampton village still on the B1398.

The views from the Jurassic Cliff are unique with open views across the river Trent flood plan and into Nottinghamshire.