

The size of these combined application is too much on good agricultural land. We are currently in the worse situation for many years regarding UK supply & security of our food. Lincolnshire being hit particularly badly. Solar in any format just doesn't work, its just a licence to print money due to the way payments are currently configured to follow the gas price. It is barely effective on the best of days & doesn't suit the UK environment or weather patterns we experiance.