

Submission ID: 18753

The sheer scale of all these solar proposals should be heard all together as they are all in such a small area. They are too big for people to submit separate items. 2 of these proposals are by the same company. The time schedule is far too small for us all to respond