

The four proposals in the area should be considered together. Two of them, West Burton and Cottam, are from the same developer. The current system and timescales ensure that informed comment extremely difficult, in addition to requiring four Inspectors. The developers are gaming the system after securing grid connection at West Burton and Cottam Power Stations.