

Submission ID: 22391

The installing of several acres of solar panels on arable land will severely impact Lincolnshire's food production at a time when we are already having food shortages due to leaving the EU, the cost of food imported will increase, we are also warned that the bee population will fall due to the greater increase of hornets predated honey bees