

Submission ID: 26188

The procedure for making comment on these solar submissions is complex and is clearly designed to obfuscate complaint and objection. The overall extent of these solar farms is utterly monstrous and I object most vociferously to the impact that they will have on my quality of life.

Submission ID: 26188

See previous comments and objections . The overall extent of these solar farms is huge and the impact on the quality of life of local residents will be overwhelming. Rethink the concept and distribute the solar scheme more equitably around the country -even if the capex increases