

Submission ID: 26628

This and all the other schemes should be examined as 1. 7,000 acres have published a map showing a total of 27,000 acres which potentially could be used for solar panels, all farm land when we are in a time of food shortages. Solar panels belong on house roofs not farm land especially now the government have zero rated the vat on solar panels .