Hello Steven –

Thank you for seeking confirmation of NatureScot’s role in the proposed Mona Offshore Wind Farm examination.

Due to high levels of casework demands relating to marine energy proposals in Scottish seas, we are unable to reply to the Examining Authority.

We do ask that any predicted adverse impacts to Scottish SPAs are identified to enable us to provide advice on potential requirements for compensation measures through a derogation process.

I hope this is helpful.

All the best.

Dear NatureScot,

The Examining Authority for the Mona Offshore Wind Farm wrote to you on 16 October 2024, requesting further information.

A response was expected for Deadline 4 (4 November 2024), but we don’t appear to have received a response.

Could you please confirm if you will be making a response in relation to the updated ornithological assessment work.

Kind regards,

Steven Parker
