Dear Sian, thank you for your letter dated 13th November requesting the comments of Babergh District Council on the adequacy of consultation in respect of the above project.

Please accept my apologies for not responding sooner, we have only just received your letter.

I am emailing to confirm that Babergh District Council, as a neighbouring authority, have not previously received any communication in relation to this project and I note that Babergh District Council are not mentioned as a relevant party in the published SoCC.

Kind regards,
Bron
