

Submission ID: 32918

I fear the proposed development will ruin the agricultural land for no good reason. Solar panels should be on roof tops. The wildlife will be murdered and the landscape ruined. Local people will suffer from the ruination of their local area, the construction itself devastates the area, the visual impact and noise will affect residents physical and mental health.