Good afternoon,

We are getting in touch to update you that we will not be provided a submission for EN010140 at Deadline 3 on Monday 27th January. This is because we're currently in discussion with the Applicant through our Discretionary Advice Service in relation to the outstanding information/assessment, and we will not have any updates to provide by this date.

We will then aim to provide our next full PINS response on 26 February 2025 - Deadline 4 (D4).

Please let us know if there are any issues with this approach.

Kind regards,
