

Submission ID: 30665

View from the ridge from ingham to hemswell, this is a vast open view where you can see for miles and with cottam now approved this view will be hugely altered with tilbridge as well.

View to West, north and south from kexby road after northland road heading towards upton. The view is already full of cottam solar to the south and tilbridge will cover the rest of it to the north and West.