

Submission ID: 33274

Solar panels are a short term fix until nuclear power stations are on line. The land can be reverted back to farming again in the future, it's all the houses being built that is a bigger issue as that land will be lost forever. So as a [REDACTED] I think this is a positive proposal, we can't be reliant on other countries to provide our power.