

I would like to submit my full personal support for the Trillbridge Solar project.

We need to move away from our reliance on fossil fuels as an energy source. The benefits of solar massively outweigh the slight disruption during construction.

Increases in biodiversity, increases in flora and fauna. almost free energy, the stabilising effects on the grid of having many smaller generation sites spread across the country vs large localised site of generation such as gas fired power plants.