

Submission ID: 29175

The government are been very short sighted by allowing land that is used for growing food to be covered in solar panals. When as a nation we only grow 40% of the food we need. By taking valuable acres out of production that figure will decrease. We will then be reliant on other countries to feed us.