I write as authorised agent to Mr Bryce and he has asked me to respond to your letter dated 27th February 2024.

Whilst the terms of a Voluntary Agreement have been reached with National Grid, due to a delay in National Grid's solicitor sending out the relevant paperwork to my client's solicitor, no legally binding Voluntary Agreement has been reached.

Heads of Terms were agreed with National Grid for a Voluntary Agreement on the 11th December and sent to Bruton Knowles at that time. My client's solicitor has yet to receive any legal papers to consider. As a result of a lack of any legally binding Agreement, my client will not be withdrawing their relevant representation. My clients have serious concerns about the intentions of National Grid and the lack of any substantive action on legal matters, and whether there is any intention from NG to actually complete the legal Agreements.

Yours faithfully,

Chris
