Annwyl/Dear Mr. Broderick,

Re; Planning Act 2008 (as amended).
National Significant Infrastructure Project. (NSIP).
Brechfa Forest Electricity Connection project.
Western Power Distribution (South Wales) plc

We refer to the above NSIP application and the Preliminary meeting held in Carmarthen on Tuesday 6 October 2015.

Our remit and functions fall under the Natural Resources Body for Wales (Functions) Order 2012 which advocates that we ensure that the environment and natural resources of Wales are sustainably maintained, enhanced and used, now and in the future.

At the above preliminary meeting you requested written clarification whether Natural Resources Wales held any responsibilities in respect of the following topic areas. They were;

- Traffic and Transport.
- Historic Archaeological Environment.

We can confirm that the above matters do not fall within our remit and are the subject to control or the provision of advice by the other national or local organisations including ; Welsh Government; Local Highway Authorities ; CADW and local Archaeological
