Dear Katherine

Ref: Mr. & Mrs. Reader, [REDACTED]

Please can you forward our email onto the inspector.

With reference to Mr. & Mrs. Reader's draft letter of 26th January, 2016. Section one page three gives their clear views along with ours, concerning compensation for valuable standing trees, grazing, crops, silage, hay, damage to fences, hedges plus land damage due to construction machinery. In addition we were not aware of the introduction of twin poles on our land until after stage 3 consultation. This is not how the process should have worked and we feel very let down by WPD.

WPD have not offered any site meetings to discuss our concerns to the above and the only meeting we were able to arrange with WPD was cancelled without me or my agent being aware of the cancellation for which we have never received an apology after standing by the side of the road with my agent for nearly an hour.

Yours sincerely,

Mr. & Mrs. Eagle
