FOR THE ATTENTION OF HELFIN JONES

Thank you for consulting Test Valley Borough Council on the adequacy of the consultation report, as provided by the applicant, concerning pre-application consultation undertaken.

The route of the proposed pipeline does not pass through the administrative area of Test Valley and our response is therefore made in this regard as an adjoining local authority.

I confirm that from the individual perspective of Test Valley as an adjoining local authority, not directly affected by the proposed pipeline route, we have no objection and are satisfied that the pre-application consultation undertaken as outlined in the consultation report is adequate and was appropriate.

However, we make no comment on the adequacy of the pre-application consultation undertaken as outlined in the consultation report more generally, as it applies to the administrative areas of other local authorities, particularly those whom through the route of the proposed pipeline passes.

Regards
