Historic England Advice - Historic England responses to ExA's 1st Questions

The Historic Buildings and Monuments Commission for England (HBMCE) is better known as Historic England, and we are the Government's adviser on all aspects of the historic environment in England, including historic buildings and areas, archaeology and historic landscapes. We have a duty to promote conservation, public understanding and enjoyment of the historic environment. We are an executive Non-Departmental public body and we answer to Parliament through the Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport (DCMS).

Our responses to ExA's 1st questions are as follows:-

1.6.1 Historic England Lincolnshire County Council Designated Heritage Assets Relevant Representations [RR-050] [RR-041] mainly focus on archaeology.

Historic England has not identified points of difference with the applicant in respect of setting effects upon the significance of Scheduled Monuments, Grade I and II* listed buildings and GI and GII* Registered Parks and Gardens but responsibility for certifying the sufficiency, completeness or quality of the submission rests with the applicant. Historic England refers the ExA to the advice of the County/Unitary Historic Buildings specialists / District Conservation Officers / Archaeological Advisors, who are best placed to respond on Grade ii Listed Buildings and their settings.

1.6.2 Historic England Lincolnshire County Council Desk-Based Assessment (DBA)

Historic England has not identified points of difference with the applicant in respect of Scheduled Monuments, Grade I and II* listed buildings and GI and GII* Registered Parks and Gardens but responsibility for certifying the sufficiency, completeness or quality of the submission rests with the applicant. Historic England refers the ExA to the advice of the County/Unitary Historic Buildings specialists / District Conservation Officers / Archaeological Advisors, who are best placed to respond on Grade ii Listed Buildings and their settings.

1.6.6 Historic England Lincolnshire County Council Relevance of physical screening to sifting judgements

Historic England has not identified points of difference with the applicant in respect of Scheduled Monuments, Grade I and II* listed buildings and GI and GII* Registered Parks and Gardens but responsibility for certifying the sufficiency, completeness or quality of the submission rests with the applicant. Historic England refers the ExA to the advice of the County/Unitary Historic Buildings specialists / District Conservation Officers / Archaeological Advisors, who are best placed to respond on Grade ii Listed Buildings and their settings.

1.6.9 Historic England Lincolnshire County Council Historic Landscape Character

Historic England has not identified points of difference with the applicant in respect of impacts upon Historic Landscape Character, we refer the ExA to the advice of the County/Unitary Historic Buildings specialists / District Conservation Officers / Archaeological Advisors.

1.6.14 Historic England Lincolnshire County Council All Local Authorities Written Scheme of Investigation (WSI)

Historic England refers the ExA to the advice of the Local Government Archaeological Advisors, who are best placed to respond on these matters in this instance.

Yours sincerely
Tim Allen
